The Dunes Delegate Report

We commenced registration under a blazing red sunrise. Was this a shepherd's warning of impending inclement weather? Certainly some of our members took it that way with their late withdrawal. As it turned out our game was played fine conditions, with increasing wind during the day. This dried out the already fast greens to make even slicker. The course overall was in excellent condition and this eventuated in some high scores with 43 points winning topping the day. Our appreciation is given to the course staff and to Tim and the pro shop staff for ensuring we all enjoyed the day.

Overview

This month's report highlights the activities of veteran golfers across various venues, showcasing the camaraderie and excitement within our golf community.

VVGA 4BBB Championship at Myrtleford

The VVGA 4BBB Championship was recently held at Myrtleford, near Wangaratta and Bright in Central Victoria. Four players, as depicted in the accompanying photo, represented the Mornington Peninsula Veteran Golfers Association (MPVGA) at this event. Participants enjoyed excellent weather and a beautifully maintained country course featuring narrow fairways and small greens.

Gordon Reynolds, Janet King, John Raven, and David King

The event was marked by impressive scoring, with many rounds in the high 40s. Both MPVGA teams performed admirably. Janet King was the only female player to secure the nearest the pin award. The team of David and Janet King achieved a commendable score of 81 over two rounds, while Gordon Reynolds and John Raven scored 71. The event spanned two days and was organized efficiently by the local club. The $80 entry fee included three meals and up to three days of golf, making it an exceptional value. Veteran golfers who have not yet participated in a VVGA event are encouraged to do so, as these competitions offer adventure, camaraderie, and a fresh golfing experience.

AVGA Interstate Visit

AVGA Players

The AVGA hosted an interstate visit from March 24th to March 26th, bringing 36 players and their families from Western Australia, South Australia, and Tasmania to Victoria. The visitors had the opportunity to play at Moonah Links and Cape Schanck. Although Thursday's round was affected by rain, participants thoroughly enjoyed experiencing two of the Peninsula's courses and engaged in social activities. The group left with a mix of happiness and trepidation, especially after encountering the challenging bunkers. Later this year, the AVGA will host its annual championship on the Gold Coast, an event that offers a chance for golfers to broaden their experiences.

Inter Zone and District 4BBB Inaugural Competition

The inaugural Inter Zone and District 4BBB competition was held at Settlers Run Cranbourne on Monday, March 30th. Teams from the Melbourne District Veteran Golfers Association, Southeastern Veteran Golfers Association, Veteran Golfers Association, and Mornington Peninsula Veteran Golfers Association participated. The Settlers Run course, designed by Greg Norman, was immaculate, with wide fairways and large, fast greens. Favorable weather conditions contributed to outstanding performances.

A total of 120 players took part in the event. Brad Quinn and Gordon Reynolds emerged as overall champions with a score of 44. Lindsay Weaver and Janine Young placed third, while Anne Ramus/Julie Grace and Henry Nothduft/Michael Weiner also delivered notable performances. Participants unanimously agreed that the event was a success and should be expanded in the future.
